

Wayne Taylor Barn

This big barn at 1580 East Main Canyon Road in Wallsburg belongs to Wayne and Emeda Taylor. It was also built by Wayne commonly known as "Jake." He was born and reared in Wallsburg, but he and Emeda live in Arizona in the winter. In February of this year they celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary.

The barn was built in 1945 or 1946 and is built of red pine and cement. The bottom part is cement painted white. It was built for a hay barn and to milk cows. There is a granary at one end and a work shop; with three horse and eight cow stalls. On the west south side they had a milk tank. This barn is some distance from the center of Wallsburg - a nice ride.

Information came from Jake in Arizona by phone.

new Hales have chosen Saturday, April ple. Olivia is the daughter of Lee and nn Edwards, of Heber City. Matthew is Orem.

atch High School, and LDS Seminary. ars at Southern Utah University with a ary Education.

m High School and LDS seminary. He h in the Connecticut Hartford mission. levision in Salt Lake City. The couple onor on April 11 at the Midway Stake of an oversight, all family and friends

es Return

Elder William Mahoney

at the Heber East Stake Center, 2395 South Mill Road, Heber City.
In case of any oversights, friends are welcome to attend.

Powers — Mair

Jack E. and Kathleen Powers are pleased to announce the marriage of their daughter, Carrie Ann Powers, to Aaron Scott Mair, son of Darrell and Carol Mair. They will be sealed for time and all eternity in the Logan LDS Temple